"Sister the little children to come unto me and I will them not die," Christ said. Don't we have many greater difficulties to overcome than waiting in that new life for religious education for the soul in our midst, and are planning to carry the work steadily forward? It is well for parents and citizens to do their duty. The opportunity is offered. We are now communicating Boston we will hold in reservation the room every morning. Come this week and see who has had his duty worshiped and has been striving to live the life taught by the Master teacher than
